(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

 Kenya
 ELI strategically works alongside gifted national leaders to break the cycle of poverty with the purpose of "Igniting World Changers." Life-skill, income-generating, and sustainable training is both at ELI locations and in villages. We work to see that people are equipped with the ability to sustain their families and communities, that they have deepening relationships with God, and that they have the communication skills to pass forward their knowledge and practical application. Agriculture, business, appropriate technology, and inspiration from Christian witness are integrated to help people find holistic change

 USA/General Fund
 The US-based staff do more than administrative work. They are active participants in ministry. Whether it be through their advising, consulting, and overseeing work in Africa or communicating with sponsors, partners, and donors in the USA, the ministry is fueled by the dynamic staff and relationship building that happens domestically. Some staff hours are spent processing donations and engaging what many would consider admin functions. However, the majority of US human resource time is spent directly investing in, participating in, and advancing the impact in Africa and in the hearts and lives of the wonderful partners who help to finance this special and unique ministry.
- 4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 135,025. including grants of $ 135,025.) (Revenue $)
 Tanzania
 For the majority of people in Tanzania, the daily struggle for water impacts every other area of life. Where there is water, it is often contaminated with bacteria and parasites which lead to debilitating sicknesses and drains people's energy and life. ELI is addressing this major problem by drilling and establishing fresh water wells in communities and schools around the Lake Region. With a training base in Ramadi, ELI staff build relationships with suffering communities and work with the Mighty Men Drilling team to research and provide the best locations for a clean and safe water source. The ELI Extension Training Program complements the water drilling program with short workshops in business, agriculture, and spiritual growth to help suffering families

Excel spreadsheets are utilized that itemize and categorize all programmatic expenses by agenda and/or program. All details inclusive of salaries, maintenance, food, fuel, utilities, school fees per child, cell-phone use, internet, school supplies, training materials, farm inputs, staff development, general operations, and specific ministry work are meticulously recorded. All expenses are affirmed and supplemented with verified receipts. Trained accountants and bookkeepers on staff in Kenya, Tanzania, and DR Congo compile the monthly spreadsheets and generate monthly expense reports. Those reports are then reviewed by the national executive teams to confirm the financial honesty of all operations and programs before submission to the ELI Director of International Implementation ahead of subsequent distribution(s) of funds.

Budgets are compiled annually and funds are distributed/granted to ELI in Africa monthly, upon review and approval of the prior month's report(s).

Documentation of all financial activities is paramount for Empowering Lives International. Funds are sent to national offices for the work in Africa. Local financial controllers and/or directors only release funds to programs once all prior expenditures and reporting have been approved and accepted by the relevant accounting department.

All international work and financial operations undergo a full independent audit as required and/or regulated by the national governments of Kenya, Tanzania, and DR Congo.

school that offers a primary education to over 200 children from the and averages around 200 children from kindergarten through 8th grade.

All programs for South Sudan are now financed through programs in Kenya
